In this week's lesson we have got a funky little groove that aims to give your ghost notes a bit of practice, as well as incorporating some three note burst with the right hand. As explained in the video, I would practice looping beats 1&2 and then 3&4 separately before going for the whole thing. Have fun!